

Does:

- The online application process offers university applicants a uniform platform for filling in their applications and also provides prompts on which fields are mandatory.
- The acknowledgement is almost immediate and the system user friendly.

Thinks:

- Computer Literacy and Internet
- Low Computer Literacy
- Security Concerns
- Infrastructural requirements

Says:

- Applicant's Convenience
- Logistics
- Increases accuracy and efficiency

Feels:

- Infrastructural Requirements Building a robust and secure online admission process is a task that requires financial and infrastructural resources.

Pros:

- It is fast, efficient and reliable.
- Avoids data redundancy and inconsistency.
- Very user-friendly.
- It helps student for making decision for choosing a right college.

Cons:

- Required active internet connection.
- System will provide inaccurate results if data entered incorrectly
- Required active internet connection.